

REASONS FOR PARENTAL PREFERENCES AMONG GOVT. AIDED AND UNAIDED
PRIMARY SCHOOLS OF MALAPPURAM EDUCATIONAL DISTRICT

Name of the student :VINOD M
Name of the supervising Teacher :Dr. N S MUMTHAS
Year of study :2004

OBJECTIVES

- To identify the major reasons attributed by parents for sending their children to a). Govt. b). Aided c).Unaided Schools
- To identify the major drawbacks of a). Govt. b). Aided c).Unaided Schools.

METHODOLOGY

Method Used : Survey

Sample : 700 parents (272+238 +190) respectively from each categories of seventh standard students.

Tool : School Preference reason Inventory (2003)

Statistical Technique : Estimation of Percentage, Standard Error of Percentage.

RESULT

The findings of the study show that there is considerable difference in the major reasons attributed by the parents for sending their children to Govt., aided and unaided schools.

KEY TERMS: Parental Preference