

DIFFICULTIES EXPERIENCED BY TRIBAL STUDENTS OF STD IX IN MECHANICS OF WRITING IN ENGLISH

Name of student : RAJULA V.V.
Name of supervising teacher : Dr. S.NIRMALA DEVI
Year of study : 2005

OBJECTIVES

- To find out the difficulties experienced by the tribal students in mechanics of writing In English on the basis of Total sample and sex.
- To suggest remedial measures to improve the mechanics of writing in English among the tribal students.

METHODOLOGY

Method used : Survey method
Sample : A sample of 250 tribal students selected from twelve secondary schools of Wayanad district, using simple random sampling technique.
Tool : Test on Mechanics of Writing (Std IX).
Statistical Techniques : Estimation of the percentage.

RESULT

The result shows that the incidence of error was found with respect to all categories of the three areas Viz. Spelling, punctuation and handwriting for the total sample and the sub sample based on sex.

KEY TERMS: Tribal students, mechanics of writing

CD No. 192