

GUIDANCE NEEDS OF HIGHER SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

Name of student : SREEPRIYA. C.
Name of supervising Teacher : ABDUL BASHEER. U.
Year of study : 2005

OBJECTIVES

- To find out the extent of guidance needs of higher secondary school students in the total sample and subsamples.
- To find out whether there exists significant difference in the guidance needs of higher secondary school students between the relevant subsamples.

METHODOLOGY

Method used : Survey method
Sample : 750 higher secondary school students selected from three districts- Malappuram, Kozhikode and Kannur in Kerala using stratified sampling technique.
Tool : Guidance Needs Inventory
Statistical Techniques : Test of significance of different between means for large independent samples.

RESULT

Mean scores of total guidance needs obtained is shows that there is greater need for guidance. Highly required guidance needs are in the following order Vocational area, Educational area, social area, Emerging area, Physical area, Psychological area and familial area.

KEY TERMS : Guidance, higher secondary school

CD No. 194