

SELF-ESTEEM AND SOCIAL COMPETENCE OF JUVENILE HOME INMATES, ORPHANS AND NORMAL CHILDRENS

Name of student : SHYLAJA C.V.
Name of supervising Teacher : MOHAMED ISHAQ K.P.
Year of study : 2006

OBJECTIVES

To find out the nature and extent of social competency and self esteem of juvenile home inmates, orphans and normal children.

METHODOLOGY

Method used : survey method
Sample : 300 adolescent children
Tool : Social Competency Scale, Self Esteem Inventory
Statistical Techniques : t-test

RESULT

Self Esteem and Social Competence of Orphans and Normal children are higher than that of Juvenile home inmates.

KEY TERMS : Social Competency, Self Esteem, Juvenile Home Inmates.