

ACC NO	225
---------------	------------

INTERNET SURFING ADDICTION AND MORAL MATURITY OF HIGHER SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS OF KERALA

Name of the student : SHEENA N.P
Name of the supervising teacher : ANEES MOHAMMED C.
Year of study : 2011

OBJECTIVE

To find out the relation between internet surfing addiction and moral maturity of higher secondary school students in the total and subsamples.

METHODOLOGY

Method : Survey Method
Sample : 581 higher secondary school students from Wayanad and Calicut districts.
Tools : Scale on Internet Surfing Addiction and Moral Maturity Scale

Statistical Techniques : Correlation, t -test , ANOVA

RESULT

There exist a significant slight and negative relationship between the variables Internet Surfing Addiction and Moral Maturity. There is significant difference in Internet Surfing Addiction of higher secondary school students based on their gender, subject specification, parental qualification and own computer.

KEY TERMS: Internet Surfing Addiction, Moral Maturity