

STAKEHOLDERS PERCEPTION ABOUT PARTICIPANT OUTCOME OF KERALA
SCHOOL KALOLSAVAM

Name of the student : NISHA J N K
Name of the supervising teacher : Dr. P. REKHA
Year of Study : 2012

OBJECTIVE

- To evaluate kerala school kalolsavam on the basis of social objectives.
- To make suggestions for improvement

METHODOLOGY

Method : Survey
Sample : 320 Students, 100 teacher, 100 Parents 50 Artists, 10 Co-ordinators, 7 Principals, 5 AEO's, 5 DEO's, 2 DDE's
Tool : Interview schedule on kerala school kalolsavam, Opinion on kerala school kalolsavam
Statistical Technique : Percentile

RESULT

- The percentages of social objectives are less perceived by high educational authorities. Personal objectives were perceived higher than the societal objectives by the stakeholders.
- Parents, teachers and student participants are less perceived the social objectives.
- Academic objectives fully perceived by educational higher authorities.
- The main finding of the study is that to enhance curriculum activities as a co-curricular activity by kerala school kalolsavam is must

KEYTERMS: kerala school kalolsavam, stakeholders