

UTILISATION OF EDUCATIONAL WELFARE SCHEMES OF THE STUDENTS IN MODEL RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS FOR TRIBES OF KERALA

Name of the student : ASHITHA L.R
Name of supervising Teacher : Dr. P. REKHA
Year of study : 2013

OBJECTIVES

- To identify whether all welfare schemes/funds are reaching the school and nature of utilisation.
- To find out the problems, if any, in utilising the educational welfare schemes.

METHODOLOGY

Method used : Survey method

Sample : 10 model residential schools selected 308 students and 20 HMS and Senior superintendents.

Tools : Check list, questionnaire, interview schedule

Statistical Techniques : Percentage analysis

RESULT

The present study is one of the steps for the betterment of MRS & thus to the scheduled tribes. The study highlights certain problems of MRs and Sought suggestions for improvement of MRS.

KEY TERMS : Educational welfare schemes, Utilisation , Model residential school,
Scheduled tribes