

OPINION OF TEACHER EDUCATORS TOWARDS NEWLY REVISED BEd
CURRICULUM OF CALICUT UNIVERSITY

Name of the student : ASHRAF. M
Name of the supervising teacher : Dr. T. MOHAMMED SALEEM
Year of the study : 2013

OBJECTIVES

- To analyse the opinion of teacher educators towards newly revised B.Ed curriculum based on core and optional courses, practicals, process and examination.
- To list of the problem faced by the teacher educators in transacting the curriculum.

METHODOLOGY

Method used : Survey method
Sample : 200 teacher educators taken from 76 colleges
Tool : Opinionnaire
Statistical Techniques : Percentage Analysis

RESULT

In the study opinions obtained from teacher educators it can be concluded that all the practice associated with revised B.Ed curriculum one almost satisfactory.

KEY TERMS : Opinion, Teacher Educators, BEd curriculum.