

PARENTAL ATTITUDE TOWARDS SEX EDUCATION IN SECONDARY SCHOOLS
OF KERALA

Name of student : DEEPA. C
Name of supervising teacher : Dr. C.M. BINDHU
Year of study : 2013

OBJECTIVES

- To find out the extent of attitude of parents towards sex education
- To find out whether there exist any significant difference in the attitude of parents towards sex education based on gender, locale, educational qualification.

METHODOLOGY

Method used : Survey method
Sample : 500 parents from different districts of Kerala.
Tools : Attitude scale on sex education (Bindhu & Deepa, 2013)
Statistical Techniques : Percentage analysis, Test of significance of difference between means, One -way ANOVA.

RESULT

There exists significant difference in the mean scores of parental attitude towards sex education in secondary schools based on gender. There exists no significant difference in the mean scores of parental attitude towards sex education based on locale and educational qualification of the parents.

KEY TERMS: Attitude towards sex education, parent secondary school, sex education.