

SECULAR VALUES AMONG SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS IN KERALA

Name of student : KRISHNAKUMAR C. K
Name of supervising Teacher : AFEEF THARAVATTATH
Year of study : 2014

OBJECTIVES

- To find out the extent of secular values among secondary school students.
- To find out whether the secondary school students differ in the perception of secular values based on type of management, locality and gender.

METHODOLOGY

Method used : Survey method

Sample : 600 Secondary school students

Tool : secular value inventory.

Statistical Techniques : preliminary analysis, Test of significance of different between means.

RESULT:

Results of the study show that secular value among secondary school students of Kerala is not at satisfactory level. Male and Female & Urban and Rural secondary school students in Kerala state have no significant difference in secular value. Government and unaided school students have significant difference in secular value.

KEY TERMS: Values, secular values.