

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN TECHNOPHILIA AND SOCIAL INTERACTION AMONG HIGHER SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

Name of the student : DILSHAD C.K

Name of the supervising teacher : Dr.T.K. UMER FAROOQUE

Year of the study : 2018

OBJECTIVES

- To find out whether there exists any significant relationship between Technophilia and Social Interaction among Higher Secondary School students for the total sample and the sub samples based on Gender, Locale of student and Type of management of schools.

METHODOLOGY

Method used : Survey method

Sample : 770 Higher Secondary School students of plus one class from Malappuram and Calicut districts.

Tool : Technophilia Assessment Scale and Social Interaction Scale.

Statistical techniques : Preliminary statistical techniques, Test of significance of difference between means (t-test) and Pearson's product moment of coefficient of correlation.

RESULT

There exists a positive relation between Technophilia and Social Interaction among Higher Secondary School students for the total sample and the subsamples.

KEY TERMS : Technophilia, Social Interaction and Higher Secondary School students.