

PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS OF IT INSTRUCTION AND EXAMINATION AT SECONDARY LEVEL UNDER THE IT @SCHOOL PROJECT OF KERALA.

Name of the student: : Sukanya Rani. P
Name of the supervising teacher: Dr. T. Mohamed Saleem
Year of the study: 2015

OBJECTIVE

- To identify the problems and challenges faced by the teachers and students in the IT instruction and examination at secondary school level.
- To analyse the process and procedures of IT instruction and Examination at secondary level conducted by It @ school project government of Kerala

METHODOLOGY

Method used: Survey method

Sample: 204 teachers and 534 students

Tool: A questionnaire for secondary school teachers in IT instruction and examination of secondary school pupils of Kerala state , A questionnaire for secondary pupils on IT instructions and soft examination of secondary school of Kerala state.

Statistical technique used Percentage analysis

RESULT

90.19% of teachers responded that they have spending so much of time for preparation for taking IT class. 87.74% of teachers expressed that IT practical becomes more useful to students when compared to other subjects. 66.17% of teachers have of opinion that separate teachers are needed for teaching IT subjects. 60.78% teachers expressed that due importance where given to tenth standard than eight and ninth standard.

KEY TERMS: IT instruction and examination