

CASE STUDY OF PRASANTHI SCHOOL FOR CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Name of the student : JIJIMOL. K. SUKUMARAN
Name of the supervising teacher : Dr. AFEEF THARAVATTATH
Year of the study : 2017

OBJECTIVE

- To conduct a case study on Prasanthi School for children with special need regarding the historical background, teaching – learning methods, curriculum, services and programmes, achievements and facilities provided there.

METHODOLOGY

Method : Case Study

Sample : Principle, teaching and non-teaching staffs, parents of special need children, everyone and everything related with the institution.

Tool : Questionnaire , Checklist

Technique : Interview, Observation

RESULT

Prasnthi School is situated at Pantheerankavu formed in 2000 in Kozhikode. Total 137 students are enrolled there with free of cost. Hygienic infrastructural and outdoor facilities are provided. Curricular activities includes goals set for daily life activities, subjects like English, Hindi, Mathematics, and Malayalam are taught. School provides both curricular and co-curricular activities. The school is champion in district sports meet for special children.

KEY TERMS: Case study, Prasanthi School for children with special needs.