

ACCESS AND UTILISATION OF ONLINE RESOURCES DURING COVID-19: FORMAL LEARNING AMONG TRIBAL STUDENTS OF NILAMBUR

Name of the student : Sandhya Chandran
Name of the supervising teacher : Dr. Aseel Abdul Wahid
Year of study : 2021

OBJECTIVE

- To examine existing information technology infrastructure among Tribal students of Nilambur total sample and subsample based on gender male and female.
- To examine the utilisation of information technology infrastructure among Tribal students of Nilambur for learning process.
- To identify the major barriers affecting the utilisation of information technology and infrastructure among Tribal students of Nilambur for learning process.

METHODOLOGY

Method : Survey method
Sample : 74 students, 11 parents, 10 teachers and 5 social workers
Tool : Questionnaire for students, Interview schedule for teachers, parents of tribal students and social workers

Statistical technique: Percentage analysis

RESULT

Majority of the tribal students have average level of access and utilisation of online resources during COVID-19 pandemic situation for their formal learning

KEY TERMS: Access, Utilisation, Online Resources, Formal learning, Tribal

CD No :